Business Overview

EUBG provides digital marketing consultancy services through its wholly-owned PRC subsidiary. The Company focuses on delivering marketing consulting and related services to enterprises in China, supporting brand development and customer acquisition through online and integrated service solutions.

During the first quarter of 2026, the Company continued to optimize its service structure and expand selected business initiatives, including a recent acquisition of 100% of the equity interests in a Hong Kong entity, Heng Ying International Investment Limited. This acquisition permits the Company to engage in commercial lending activities once its Money Lenders License is renewed, which is expected around June 2026.

Strategic Outlook

EUBG continues to focus on strengthening its consulting capabilities, improving operational efficiency, and enhancing long-term competitiveness.

The Company is also evaluating strategic expansion opportunities, including selected fintech-related initiatives through its recently acquired Hong Kong subsidiary, Heng Ying International Investment Limited.

In addition, on February 25, 2026, the Company effected a 1-for-10 reverse stock split, further aligning its capital structure with long-term strategic objectives.

Management Commentary

Mr. Guolin Tao, CEO of EUBG, stated:

"Although our first quarter results reflected a more cautious operating environment and adjustments in certain service lines, we continued to maintain profitability and a strong cash position.

We remain focused on disciplined execution, operational optimization, and long-term strategic development. Looking ahead, we will continue enhancing our consulting service capabilities while prudently evaluating new business opportunities that support sustainable growth."
